

10. TERMINOLOGY (complementary-integrative-alternative)

~Complementary means that the new treatment is intended to be used in addition to the standard proven treatment option to improve what we already know to work~

~Integrative means that the treatments are designed to work together, a blending of the best of both traditional and non traditional options~

~Alternative suggests that the treatment is to be used instead of known and accepted treatments~